

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS
OF THE MARYLAND CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION, INC.

AFT LOCAL 1935

RATIFIED NOVEMBER 21, 2022
(AMENDED NOVEMBER 19, 2024)

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I- NAME AND AFFILIATION

1. Name: This organization shall be known as the Maryland Classified Employees Association, AFT Local 1935, hereinafter referred to as “MCEA” or “the Union”, which shall be organized into Councils made up of public employees throughout Maryland.
2. Affiliation: MCEA shall be affiliated with and participate actively in the American Federation of Teachers, the AFT Maryland, the Central Labor Bodies of the AFL-CIO, and the national AFL-CIO.

ARTICLE II-OBJECTIVES

The objectives of MCEA shall be those prescribed by the Certificate of Incorporation and by the Constitution and Bylaws of the American Federation of Teachers (AFT), including but not limited to the following:

1. To secure full union rights, including the rights to exclusive recognition and collective bargaining, for all employees who are eligible for membership.
2. To advance the economic, social, and political well-being of the membership.

3. To promote the improvement of standards in the employment situation of the membership.
4. To encourage mutual understanding and cooperation among the membership.
5. To promote the interests of citizens who are served by the membership.
6. To promote the effectiveness and the quality of the institutions in which our members work.
7. To promote democracy, equality, and unionism in the society at large.
8. To secure legislative and administrative actions which will safeguard and promote the goals of our councils.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

1. Eligibility

- A. An active member shall be an employee who has signed and filed with the Union a membership application, and who is a full, part-time, or contractual Maryland public employee, and who is in good standing. A member is “in good standing” so long as payroll deduction for MCEA dues is authorized, or instead of payroll deduction, a member has paid dues one year in advance.
- B. A retiree member shall be a member who has legally retired from public service.
- C. Only active members shall have the right to vote on Union matters.
- D. Only active members and incumbent retiree members in good standing may be elected or appointed as an MCEA Executive Officer.
- E. Only active members are eligible to serve as a Council President. Both active and retiree members may serve as Representative Assembly Members, and on committees of the Union. The Retiree Council will elect their own Council President who is a non-voting member of the Representative Assembly.

- F. No person shall be denied membership, nor shall this organization ever discriminate against individual members or applicants for membership on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, disability, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation and social, political or economic status.

2. Dues

Dues: The dues shall include per capita assessments for AFT, AFT Maryland, AFL-CIO, and the Central Labor Body. In addition to the dues amount set pursuant to Article II of the MCEA Bylaw, dues shall automatically increase annually, as necessary, by the amount of any increase in per capita assessments.

ARTICLE IV - ELECTION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

1. Officers: The Executive Officers of MCEA shall be President, Executive Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
2. Election: Each of the Executive Officers shall be elected in September. Beginning in 2025, terms of office shall be four years. The newly elected officers shall take office at the close of the October Representative Assembly meeting following the election. Election for Officers shall be conducted pursuant to Article V of the MCEA Bylaws.
3. Eligibility for office: To be eligible for office a person must be a member of the organization for a period of one (1) year prior to the date of the election.
4. Vacancy: Any vacancy caused by death or resignation shall be filled by a member appointed by the next Representative Assembly.
5. Retirement: An officer who retires from public service during their term of office may serve until the completion of that term.

ARTICLE V - EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Officers and the Council Presidents shall make up the Executive Board.

ARTICLE VI- REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY

301- 350	8 (Council President or designee plus 7 Representative)
351- 400	9 (Council President or designee plus 8 Representative)

2. Election: The members of the respective Councils shall elect a Council President and Representatives for a term of two years. The election shall be held between September 1 and September 20 in odd-numbered years. Representatives shall take office on October 1, following their election. Council Presidents and Representatives shall be elected only from the Councils served. To be eligible to serve as Council President or Representative an individual must be a member in good standing of the organization for a period of six (6) months prior to the date of the election. The Council President shall be elected pursuant to Article IX of the MCEA Bylaws.
3. Regular Meetings: The Representative Assembly shall hold two regular meetings annually. The meetings shall be held on the third Saturday in the months of April and October. The date and time of the meeting may be changed at any regular or special meeting of the Representative Assembly by a majority of those voting on the question. A quorum for doing business at a meeting of the Representative Assembly shall consist of representation from a majority of the Councils in existence at the time of the meeting.
4. Special Meetings of the Representative Assembly:
 - Special meetings may be called at the discretion of the President, or by petition.
 - The President shall call a special meeting within ten working days after receiving a written petition signed by at least 30% of the members of the Representative Assembly, provided at least one half of the Councils are represented among the petitioners.
 - All Representative Assembly members shall be notified at least ten days prior to any special meeting.

5. Admission of New Councils: The Representative Assembly shall consider applications from prospective Councils who wish to affiliate with MCEA. A majority of those Representatives voting at any regular or special meeting shall be required for the admission of new Councils.

ARTICLE VII - CONVENTIONS

1. A special single-issue convention may be called by the President, by a majority vote of the Representative Assembly, or by a petition signed by a majority of the Council Presidents.
2. Thirty (30) active members shall constitute a quorum required to conduct business at any convention.
3. AFT Convention Delegates: The Executive Board Officers are automatic delegates to the AFT Maryland Convention, and the AFT Convention. Additional delegates and alternates to the AFT Maryland Convention and the AFT Convention, for which MCEA is eligible, shall be elected by vote of the membership.

ARTICLE VIII- BUDGET

The budget year of MCEA shall be from January 1 to December 31. The annual budget shall be prepared by the Finance Committee with the Treasurer as chairperson and then presented to the Executive Board for approval. The budget shall be presented for approval at the October Representative Assembly meeting.

ARTICLE IX - RECALL AND DISCIPLINE

1. Recall Procedures:
 - A. Recall procedures of any Executive Board Officer, Council President, or Representative Assembly member shall be instituted upon filing of a valid petition for recall with the Secretary of the Union, who shall give receipt for such petition.

B. The petition for recall shall provide a statement of cause. Cause will be defined as:

- i. Having engaged in conduct or a course of activity hostile or contrary to the best interests of the members of the MCEA, AFT Maryland, AFT or any other affiliated labor organization;
- ii. Violation of the MCEA Constitution; or
- iii. Malfeasance or misfeasance in office or neglect of duty;

C. Any active member may file a petition for recall. It must be signed by at least thirty-five (35) percent of the total membership for recall of an Executive Board Officer, and by two-thirds (66%) of the Council for recall of a Council President or Representative Assembly member.

D. Upon receipt of the properly filed petition for recall, the Secretary shall present the petition to the Executive Board at its next scheduled meeting. The Executive Board shall determine by a majority vote whether the petition for recall merits a hearing.

2. Discipline Procedures:

The Executive Board may take appropriate disciplinary action, including but not limited to the suspension or expulsion from membership of any Executive Board Officer, Council President or Representative Assembly member, if cause is deemed warranted by a 2/3 vote of the full Executive Board, following a hearing at which the accused shall have been notified and provided a copy of the charges not less than thirty (30) days in advance of the hearing. Both the accused and the charging party shall be afforded the opportunity to be heard and to present evidence. The decision of the Executive Board will be final and binding, except that a decision sustaining an expulsion from membership may be appealed to the next meeting of the Representative Assembly

3. Any elected or appointed Executive Board Officer or Representative Assembly member missing two consecutive regular meetings or four meetings within a twelve month period, without a written statement filed with the Secretary and approved by the Executive Board for each absence, shall be deemed negligent of duty and subject to recall by the Executive Board.

ARTICLE X - LABOR BODY DELEGATES

The President or designee shall be an automatic delegate to the Central Labor Council.

ARTICLE XI- AMENDMENTS

1. Proposals: Proposed amendments to this Constitution may be heard at any regular or special meeting of the Representative Assembly. Members of the Representative Assembly must receive a copy of the proposed amendments no less than 10 business days before the meeting.
2. Ratification: A two-thirds majority of those present at any meeting of the Representative Assembly shall be necessary to ratify the amendment. Within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the assembly meeting the amendment will go to the membership for a ratification vote.

ARTICLE XII- PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order Revised shall govern MCEA in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the constitution, bylaws, or the special rules of order of the Union and the constitution of affiliates.
